

BIO:

Born in Indianapolis, IN, Didda Joe is a singer, multi instrumentalist, and producer ushering in a new wave of R&B with his nostalgic, edgy, driving, yet soulfully smooth sound very reminiscent to likes of Prince, D'Angelo, Musiq Soulchild, mixed in with a little Jimi Hendrix, John Mayer, Nirvana, and more substances long lost in modern R&B music.

Current collaborations with Grammy nominated Ayo the Producer of Cardi B, Lil Wayne and Drake, Didda's new music is a new reincarnation of 90's R&B magical soul. Bringing back the sultry vocals of an emotional decade, Didda's new modern twist on a nostalgic era is young, fresh, sultry ingenuity. Didda's musical compositions have been featured on VH1's Love and Hip Hop, and WE TV's Growing Up Hip Hip T.V shows.

Garnering notable openers and working with artists such as Master P, No Limit, Shafiq Husayn and more, Didda Joe is gaining fans from coast to coast. Armed with unforgettable stage presence and high octane musical performances, the power of Didda cannot be denied.

A talent set to takeover the world... Didda Joe is the future of music and the art of the soul.
